

Student of the Month - November 2023

Design & Technologies
Ms Yates	Cerys	Beadle	Scott	Committed	Cerys, you stay focused, always pay attention and try your absolute best every lesson, this shows in your success, you are a pleasure to teach.
Mrs Watt	Rowan	Harrison	Scott	Enthusiastic	Your answers during our discussion on logos were thoughtful, insightful and showed great imaginative thought.
Mrs Marchand	Louis	Henry	Douglas	Enthusiastic	Louis always produces excellent work in Computing and contributes well at the start of the lesson.
Mrs Darling	Rory	Hull	Scott	Committed	Rory has made a huge effort in the Higher Computing course so far. He is very thorough with every task he completes which has led to Rory having a very impressive understanding of the course so far. Keep it up Rory!
Mrs Hill	Eli	McLeod	Home	Enthusiastic	Eli - your enthusiasm in Business is brilliant. Always asking relevant questions and contributing to class discussions. Well done on your recent assessments as well. Keep up the great work!
Miss Brotherston	Ella	Milburn	Scott	Committed	Ella you have shown great commitment throughout the spreadsheet unit. When things have been difficult you have kept trying and improved greatly! Keep up the good work!
Enhanced Provision
Miss Watney	Isaac	Kitchen	Scott	Enthusiastic	Isaac is engaging well during whole class time and has worked hard on counting and matching.
Mrs Smith	Jokubas	Sakalauskas	Scott	Enthusiastic	Great engagement with learning activities in class.

Aim for Best

Student of the Month - November 2023

Humanities
Miss Grant	Eve	Dewar	Douglas	Committed	Commitment to your studies in Criminology.
Miss Ralston	Noah	Higginbottom	Scott	Committed	For the commitment to geography in class and in your world project.
Mr Meadows	Michael	Kwecka	Douglas	Committed	For putting in a huge effort in History. This has been reflected in a great October checkpoint assessment score.
Mrs Patterson	Freddie	Lake	Home	Committed	Amazing result in his recent assessment - 100% and always works hard in lessons.
Dr Koita	Eli	McLeod	Home	Enthusiastic	Eli participated very enthusiastically in his class' mock election. He produced an excellent mini manifesto and speech, and created an effective election campaign stall.
Languages & Literature
Mrs Rowson	Klaudia	Hanska-Szulc	Scott	Committed	You have really stepped up with your work in Spanish this session and are now sailing through it at a very high level. Well done!
Miss Currie	Louis	Henry	Douglas	Committed	Louis consistently works to the highest of standards and always challenges himself. He has performed exceptionally well in the reading challenge this month.
Mrs Ford	Lois	Jones	Douglas	Committed	Lois prepared very well for her Spanish assessments!
Mrs Hughes	Olivia	Paterson	Scott	Committed	Olivia has greatly improved her focus, behaviour and application to her work.
Mr Leiper	Chloe	Penman	Home	Committed	Chloe has been a model student oin English. She is focused in class and puts in an enormous effort to ensure she understands her work. She is a wonderful example to her peers.
Miss MacDonald	Hughie	Ross	Home	Committed	Hughie has been brilliant to have in drama. Every time I check in, he is on task, paying attention and following instructions. It has been a pleasure to teach him this year.
Mr Huffman	Logan	Yule	Scott	Committed	You've shown a great commitment to your reading, Logan. Keep up the effort!

Aim for Best

Student of the Month - November 2023

Mathematics
Mrs Dalton	Hollie	Fairbairn	Douglas	Committed	Hollie has impressed me with her work ethic this month, passing N4 Numeracy.
Mrs Ford	Logan	Yule	Scott	Respectful	Logan worked hard for his maths assessment, and he is always respectful.
Music
Mr Mabon	Angus	Calvert	Scott	Committed	Angus always applies himself with great enthusiasm and maturity in class. He made a wonderful job of playing the Last Post at our recent Remembrance Ceremony - a very difficult thing to do!
Miss Waszyrowska	Robyn	Clark	Home	Committed	Robyn has been excelling in music recently. Her enthusiasm and commitment are always visible and she's been making great progress on her two instruments as well as listening and theory! Keep it up!
Physical Education
Mrs Morrison	Luke	Angus	Scott	Enthusiastic	Whilst coaching Duns Primary School P5s, Luke has planned sessions that were safe, enjoyable, challenging, yet age and stage appropriate. Luke is a fantastic role model and can provide his participants with relevant feedback.
Mr Murray	Erin	Romaines	Scott	Enthusiastic	Erin's enthusiasm for social dance has been evident throughout the block, which has allowed her to develop her performance.
Support for Learning
Mrs Huffman	Logan	Hodge	Home	Committed	Ongoing commitment to your studies and support of the Dyslexia Hubs.
Miss McAleece	Dylan	McEwen	Home	Respectful	I have been impressed with your attitude and work ethic. You have worked well at all the assessments and assignments that we have thrown at you, with no complaints and a lot of polite listening.
Mrs Tharme	Liam	Richardson	Douglas	Committed	Liam, you are making good progress in Maths, well done.

Aim for Best

Student of the Month - November 2023

Science
Miss Morison	Bethany	Rutherford	Douglas	Committed	Working hard all year.
Mrs Addie	Sam	Beckett	Scott	Committed	Sam, you always work so hard in class, your work is well presented and you are committed to doing your best!
Mrs Stokes	Andrew	Brydon	Home	Respectful	Always demonstrate good attitude to school and polite at all times.
Mrs Taylor	Mariana	Delgado	Home	Committed	Mariana you have worked with commitment throughout the Early Years Child Care course. Well done on all you have achieved so far.
Mr Watson	Liam	Richardson	Douglas	Enthusiastic	More confident in his answers and contribution in class, really getting involved in class discussions.
Dr S Barker	David	Ross	Douglas	Enthusiastic	David you continually give 100% to every lesson- well done.

Aim for Best